SCHEDULE 1

Existing Sukuk Programme

The Issuer has in 2020 established an Islamic medium term notes programme of up to RM1.5 billion in nominal value based on the Shariah principles of Wakalah Bi Al- Istithmar and Murabahah (via Tawarruq arrangement) (“Existing Sukuk Programme”). As at the date hereof, the outstanding nominal value of Islamic medium term notes issued under the Existing Sukuk Programme is RM383.0 Million (“Outstanding Sukuk”).

Based on the terms of the Existing Sukuk Programme, the Issuer is required to build up principal and profit payments in respect of the Outstanding Sukuk in a security and principal account and a finance service reserve account for each tranche, respectively. The Issuer has not been in compliance with such requirements though principal and profit payments under the Outstanding Sukuk has been made by the Issuer on the relevant scheduled payment date.

If the Trustee issues an acceleration notice under the Existing Sukuk Programme as a result of non-compliance by the Issuer of the terms thereof:-

- (i) all amounts payable by the Issuer under the relevant tranche (including the deferred sale price and the exercise price) shall thereupon immediately become due and payable and all accrued profits and principal thereon and any other amounts payable under the relevant tranche shall become due and payable; and
- (ii) the security trustee shall be entitled to immediately enforce the security conferred by and/or exercise any of its rights, powers and discretions under the relevant security documents, without further notice to the Issuer or any of the security parties.

In addition, such non-compliance by the Issuer of the terms of the Existing Sukuk Programme could result in the acceleration of the Group’s other borrowings/financing ahead of their due date for payment.

Pursuant to the deed of covenant entered into in relation to the Seventh Tranche, the Issuer has undertaken to, amongst others, the Sukuk Trustee (acting for the Sukukholders of Tranche 7) that it shall continue to pay the principal and profit payments under the Outstanding Sukuk promptly on each scheduled payment date thereof.
